RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On September 27, 2021, Anna Howle, mother and natural guardian of minor child, M.L.L., filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). On October 12, 2022, the Court granted Ms. Howle’s motion to substitute the name of her son, Miles Levine (“Petitioner”), on the case caption given that Petitioner had reached the age of majority on July 16, 2021. Petitioner alleges that he suffered a left-sided injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of a meningitis vaccine administered on November 11, 2020. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccine was administered within the United States, that Petitioner suffered the residual effects of his injury for more than six months, and that there has been no compensation in the form of an award or settlement for Petitioner's vaccine-related injury. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 12, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent has concluded that Petitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury table and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation for a SIRVA. Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner has satisfied the legal prerequisites for compensation. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
